University of Montevallo

The Water continually flowed and flowed
and yet
it was always there, it was the same
and yet
every moment
it was new.
H. Hesse

Dedicated to those of us Whose picture has never crossed an annual, but in Classes. To those of us who were never leaders, nor presidents, nor brilliant.
For those who never had the fortune to be beauties, actors, or editors. But to those of us who learned, while here, to love and care.

Today another day passed
As all previous days have passed, Leaving nothing but the faint remembrance Of what was Leaving nothing but a faded impression
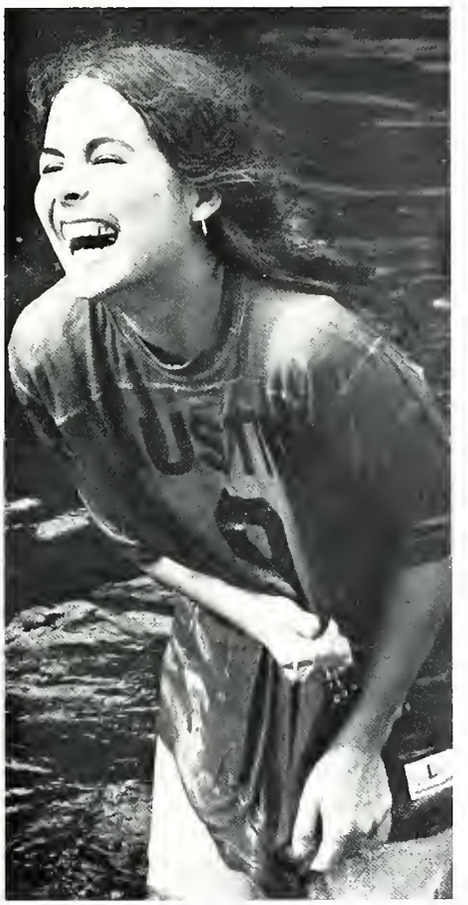
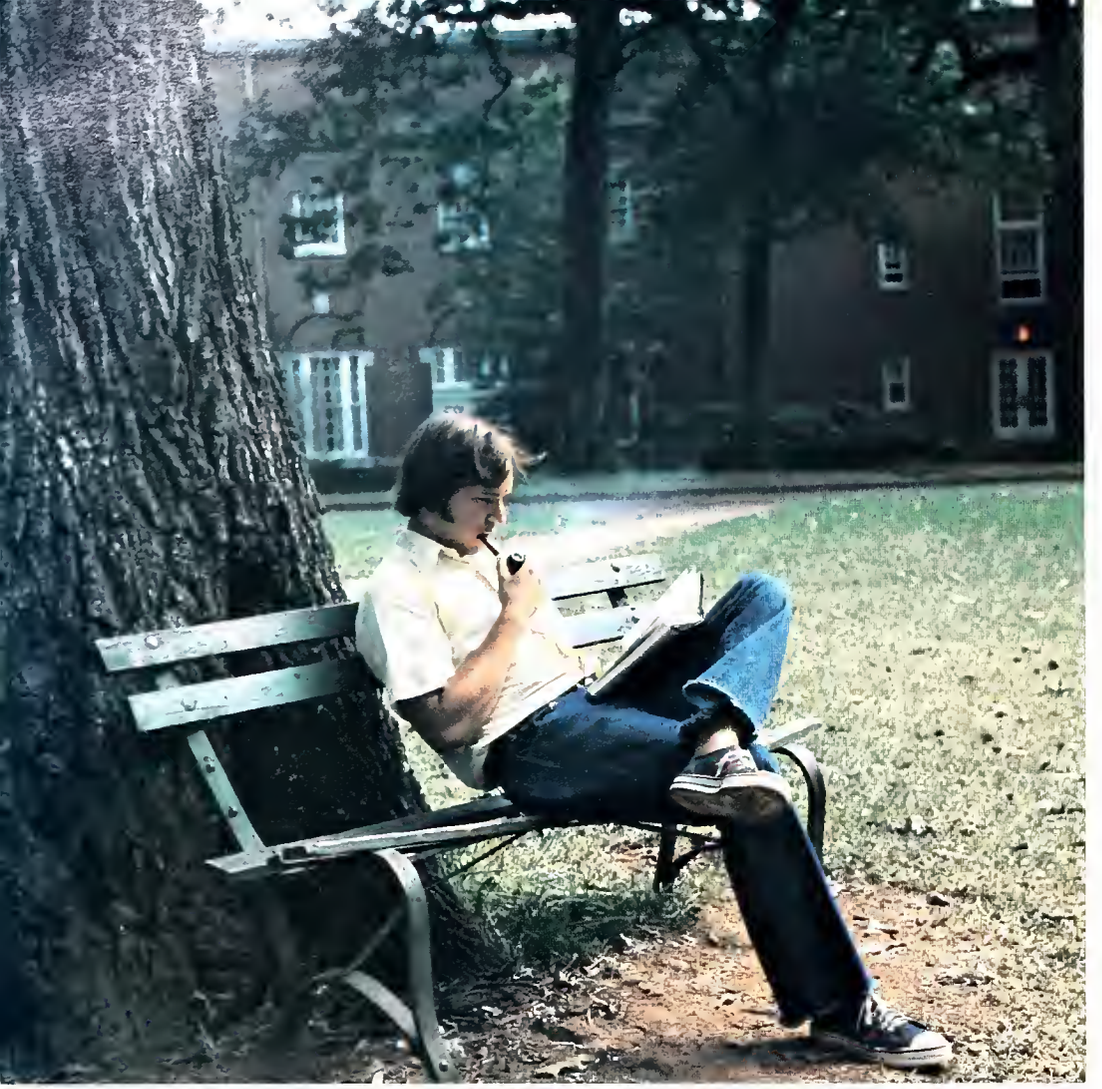
On our minds.





And tomorrow will pass
Just as today passed Leaving no strong incident
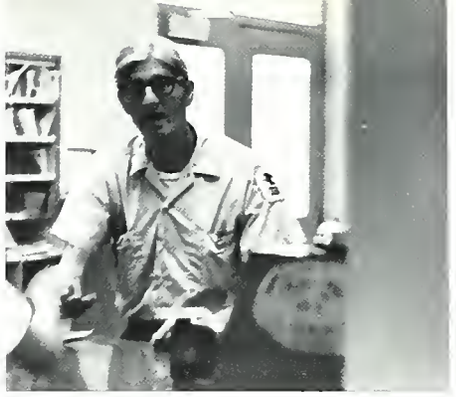
To ever reinforce its presence



DRINK
Coca-Cola

And the conglomeration
Of faded todays and barely remembered yesterdays
And quick-moving—never impressing tomorrows Makes up a whole—us.

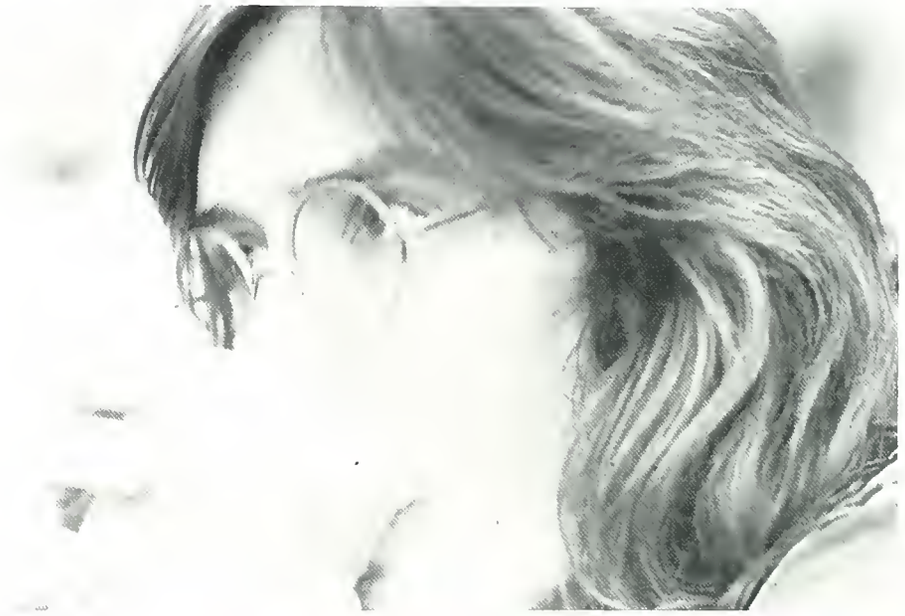
Our days fade into each other,
Each inseparable from the other
Yet all form and create one whole.
Memory, mind, and experience are we.



Who can say
Nothing ever happens
When the whole world is happening?

Life is happening outside the window.
We can watch it, or be involved with it.
We chose to be involved.
We are never bored.
With people or without them.

Like stepping stones across the streams Accompaning every waterfall,
So college tradition holds.
Each stone leading closer to the other side—
Each activity leading to the close of another year.
The memories to some are just another step,
But to others, a smile or a tear.

A million thoughts
Of joy and sorrow,
Fleeting,
Contrasting,
All in the space
Of a moment.

Times of joy, Times of sorrow
Together
At Once

For who cannot say
Those of the richest experiences
We shared
Had not a taste of bitterness Damnation,
    Oh those times of frustration
May have been the sweetest.

Are we not part of all we meet?
The joys, the sorrows staring,
We woke up to a million dreams
But never left them all.

College Night 1974
A Purple Reign

First, leaders are elected. Then come cabinet, cowtail, and flunkie selections, rehearsals, sign raisings, more rehearsals, prop construction, more rehearsals, stagings, and still more rehearsals before the dream becomes reality—College Night finally arrives. This unique tradition is a rare blend of all the emotions we encounter every day. Whether we win or lose, College Night demonstrates the value of learning, teaching, taking, giving, competing, sharing, and most importantly the value of establishing never-to-be-forgotten friendships.

In a sense, it is an error to say that anyone "loses" during college Night. As long as Purples yell "PV" and Golds respond with "GV," there will exist a certain mixture of pride, satisfaction, and companionship which defies attachment of won or lost labels.

College Night is entertainment, excitement, and a sense of belonging—and only a bare stage on a late Saturday night in February can explain the void caused by its annual passing. It is on that February night that the participants realize that no one has really lost at all . . .

You know the secret to death.
But how shall you find it unless you seek it in the heart of life?
The owl whose night-bound eyes are blind unto the day cannot unveil the mystery of light.
If you would indeed behold the spirit of death, open your heart wide unto the body of life.
For life and death are one even as the river and the sea are one.

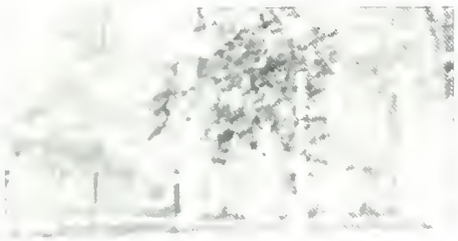
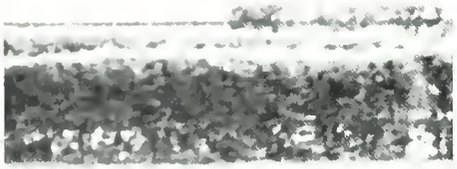
A Montage of Reflections

Bittersweet





For Mark,

One of the truly

Beautiful People

I am the dream
That passed
In the night,
I am the shadow
Of the day.

Send me somewhere
I've never been before
I'll take your heart with me when I leave.

Sitting silently in the grass
Waiting for the beauty of fulfillment
Not knowing the full meaning
She has at her command,
Searching as a child passes forward
Into the world, and knows herself Thus blessing others.
Bring smiles and joy of spirit
Into their hearts
But worry not and ease self into beauty.
For all who share grow,
And those do not fear,
For love and compassion have Their rewards in beauty.

Know for thou art you
And no other has tread this path,
Golden girl,
Looking for the door into summer.

A friend is a friend

When he understands your soul

we go through our lives telling ourselves we aren't worthy of the one we really love and so we plunge onward deceiving ourselves

strange that the one we love usually feels the same way

Walk with me a while, my friend, down the road of life,

For it's a long, long road and I know not where it leads.

Open the door
And come on in,
I'm so glad
To see you, my friend,
You're like a rainbow
Coming around the bend.

The million places we've travelled to, but never have been

People
So seldom Say I love you
And then
It's either too late
Or love goes
So when I tell you
I love you
It doesn't mean
I know you'll never go Only that I wish you didn't have to

The time we began to think in years
instead of months

Today is only Yesterday's Tomorrow

OH, MAMA, COULD THIS REALLY BE THE END?
TO BE STUCK IN MONTEVALLO WITH THE MEMPHIS BLUES AGAIN.
